ERIC LINO,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL NO. 03-10377-WGY

MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE ANY REFERENCES TO THE DEFENDANT'S INCARCERATION STATUS

The Defendant requests that the Court bar the introduction into evidence and any mention of the Defendant's status as a prisoner. This would include, but is not limited to, the introduction of transcripts of taped telephone conversations made from prison, and the testimony of Dennis Maietta, a former probation officer for the Defendant.

As grounds, the Defendant states that his status as a prisoner is not relevant to any element of the crimes charged, and that any mention of it would create substantial prejudice against him.

Respectfully submitted,
FOR THE DEFENDANT,

MOTION TO SEQUESTER WITNESSES

The above-named Defendant hereby respectfully moves this Honorable Court for an order directing that all witnesses be sequestered at the trial of this matter and in so doing order that:

1. All prospective witnesses be excluded from the courtroom;
2. All prospective witnesses be ordered to be separated from each other and not talk among themselves about their testimony;
3. Any testifying witness be sequestered during the period of any recess;

As grounds, the Defendant states that the witnesses should be sequestered to ensure that the Defendant receives a fair trial.

MOTION FOR THE "STRUCK METHOD" OF JURY SELECTION

The above-named Defendant, hereby moves this Honorable Court for an order directing that the "struck method" of jury selection be employed, by first finding enough indifferent jurors to equal the number needed to serve on the jury, plus the total number of peremptory challenges, before allowing the parties to exercise their peremptory challenges.

As grounds, the Defendant states that the employment of the struck method will better ensure that the Defendant receives a fair trial.
